NONRELATIVISTIC QED AND RELATED MODELS

Dr. Oliver Siebert

After an introduction to the formalism of second quantization I would like to discuss some models and related problems involving bosonic Fock spaces both at zero and positive temperature. At zero temperature an important question is the existence of ground states whereas for positive temperature the counterpart are equilibrium and other time-invariant states.